COMPANY A - 1st FLORIDA REGIMENT

This company was organized at Ocala, Florida, May 24, 1884, under the name of Ocala Rifles; it was afterward known as Co. A, 2nd Battalion Florida State Troops. When the United States called for troops to serve in the Spanish-American War this company was accepted by the Governor for service in the United States Volunteers. On April 25, 1898, they left Ocala by rail for Tampa, Fla., arrived there the same day and went into camp at Fort Brooke, at which place the company was mustered in May 20, 1898. Broke camp May 27, 1898, and marched to Camp DeSoto, Tampa, Fla., where it went into camp. June 30, 1898, broke camp and marched to Tampa Heights, going on duty with the United States Siege Artillery commanded by Major Wills. Left Tampa by rail July 21, 1898, for Fernandina, arriving at camp July 22, 1898; remained there until August 1, 1898, then left by rail for Huntsville, Ala.; arrived there August 25, 1898; left Huntsville October 9, 1898, arrived at Tallahassee October 11, 1898, to which place the company had been ordered for the purpose of being mustered out of service. The company was furloughed October 16, 1898, for thirty days; company mustered out December 3, 1898.

COMPANY L - 1st FLORIDA REGIMENT

This company was organized in 1891 at Live Oak, Fla., as the Suwannee Rifles and at the time of mustering into the United States service was known in the Florida State Troops as Co. A, 4th Battalion. It was accepted by the Governor of the State for United States service in the Spanish-American War on April 23, 1898.

The company left Live Oak for Tampa, Fla., May 12, 1898, arrived there May 13 and went in camp on the old Government reservation known as the "Garrison," at which place it was mustered into the United States service on May 23, 1898. Broke camp at the "Garrison" May 27 moved into camp at DeSoto Park, Tampa, Fla., on same day. June 29 the company was detached from the Regiment at Fort Brooke Camp and marched to Tampa Heights, going into the service in the United States Siege Artillery train, under Colonel Mills, U. S. A. In July it was again attached to the Regiment; broke camp at Tampa Heights July 21 and left Tampa by rail for Fernandina; arrived and went into camp at Fernandina July 22; broke camp at Fernandina August 22, and left by rail for Huntsville, Ala., August 23; arrived and went into camp at that place August 25, where it remained until October 9, when it moved to Tallahassee preparatory to being mustered out of the service; arrived October 11. October 14 the company was given furlough for 30 days, except detachment left to guard property; returned to Tallahassee November 15, 1898, for the purpose of being regularly mustered out.

APPENDIX MEXICAN WAR

During the Mexican War the State of Florida did not have population enough to form a regiment, but two companies were organized. One known as the Independent Company of Florida Volunteers, with the following officers; Captain, William W. I. Kelly; 1st Lieutenant, Hopwell Dorsey; 2nd Lieutenants, A. H. Bright and John Parkhill (Parkhill was killed at Palm Hammock and Bright afterward commanded Co. K, 1st Florida Regiment, C. S. A). The additional company of volunteers which assembled at Tallahassee in 1847, was first commanded by Capt. George Holmes; afterward by Capt. R. G. Livingston who died in Guadaloupe February, 1848; the 1st Lieutenants were D. M. Stewart, who died at Vera Cruz, and Roman Sanchez; the 2nd Lieutenants William L Scott and Joseph Woodruff.
